

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT (MONBUKAGAKUSHO: MEXT) SCHOLARSHIP FOR 2014

(JAPANESE STUDIES STUDENTS)

The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) offers scholarships to foreign students to study in Japanese universities in order to deepen their understanding of the Japanese language, Japanese affairs and Japanese culture.

Regulations for the 2014 MEXT Scholarship Program are as follows:

1. QUALIFICATIONS

- (1) Nationality: Applicants must have the nationality of a country that has diplomatic relations with Japan. An applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application is not eligible. Applicant screening will be conducted at the Japanese diplomatic mission in the country of Applicant's nationality .
- (2) Age: Applicants must be born between April 2, 1984 and April 1, 1996.
- (3) Academic Background: Applicants must be undergraduates at foreign (non-Japanese) universities majoring in fields related to the Japanese language or Japanese culture at the time of arriving in and leaving Japan.
- (4) Japanese Language Ability: Applicants must have Japanese language ability sufficient for receiving education at a Japanese university in Japan.
- (5) Health: Applicants must be free from any mental or physical disabilities that would be an impediment to the pursuit of study in Japanese universities.
- (6) Arrival in Japan: Applicants must definitely be able to arrive in Japan within two weeks counted from the starting day of the study course set by the university in Japan (usually October) and the period set by the accepting university . (If the applicant arrives in Japan before the period for personal reasons, travel expenses to Japan will not be paid. And, if the applicant cannot arrive in Japan during the designated period, the applicant must resign.)
- (7) Visa acquisition: Applicants must acquire "College Student" (ryugaku) visas before entering Japan. They then enter Japan with the "College Student" (ryugaku) residence status. Moreover, in exceptional cases when successful applicants have been residing in Japan before their acceptance under a status other than "College Student" and are to change their visa status within Japan, they must acquire a "College Student" visa by the end of the month prior to the month in which they are scheduled to start receiving the scholarship. (Furthermore, please note that those who change their visa status to gone other than "College Student" after arriving in Japan will also lose their qualifications to be Japanese Government Scholarship recipients from the date when they change their visa status.)
- (8) Any applicant who meets any or all of the following conditions is not eligible. If identified after the start of the scholarship period, the applicant will be required to withdraw from the scholarship.
 1. Those who qualify as military personnel or military civilian employees.
 2. Those who can not arrive in Japan during the period designated by the accepting university.
 3. As of October 1, 2014, applicants who have been awarded a Japanese Government Scholarship in the past will not be selected as a recipient until at least three years have passed since the first of the month following the month of their final receipt of the previous scholarship.
 4. Those who are already enrolled at Japanese universities with "College Student" visa status, or those already enrolled or are scheduled to be enrolled in universities in Japan as non-scholarship students, from the date of application in their home countries to before the first receipt of the scholarship .
 5. Recipients of scholarships from other institutions than MEXT including government institutions in their home countries.
- (9) Study courses implemented: The study/training is implemented only in the university/study courses listed in a booklet "Course Guide for Japanese Studies Students."

(Note 1) Applicants must not simultaneously apply to be a Japanese studies student through a university recommendation for which recruiting is carried out during the same period of time. A university recommendation is a method whereby universities recommend students residing overseas in cooperation with universities in other countries with which they have concluded exchange agreements.

(Note 2) Applicants must not simultaneously apply under a system that supports short-term study by exchange students like that implemented by the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) Student Exchange Support Program (Scholarship for Short-term Study in Japan).

Those majoring in fields of study other than Japanese language and Japanese culture (such as Engineering, Economics, Agricultural Science, Architecture, Art, etc.) and who wish to pursue complementary studies in Japanese language and culture should apply for another scholarship, such as the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) Student Exchange Support Program (Scholarship for Short-term Study in Japan).

(Note 3) Those who have not studied at a university for more than one year, as of April 2014, will not be eligible in principle.

2. TERM OF SCHOLARSHIP

The term is the period necessary to complete the accepting university's study course, which should be within approximately one year from October 2014 (the starting month of the study course). (Extension of the term is not allowed.)

3. SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

- (1) Allowance: The amount of the scholarship disbursement per month for the 2014 academic year has yet to be determined. However, the actual amount for the 2013 academic year for reference is 117,000 yen per month. (The monetary amount each year may be subject to change because of budgetary reasons.)

In case that the recipient research in a designated region, 2,000 or 3,000 yen per month will be added.

The scholarship is cancelled in principle if the recipient is absent from the university for an extended period.

The scholarship will be also cancelled in principle in the following situations. And, if the recipient has been receiving the scholarship despite his/her falling under any of the following situations, the recipient will be ordered to return the amount of scholarship that he/she received during the period wherein he/she was involved with any of the following situations.

- (3) Applicants who pass the primary selection will be recommended by the Japanese diplomatic missions to MEXT.
- (4) MEXT will conduct the secondary (final) selection of the applicants recommended by the Japanese diplomatic missions and decide the scholarship recipients.
- (5) Results of the secondary selection will be notified on a date separately designated by each Japanese diplomatic missions.

6. ACCEPTANCE, PLACEMENT, AND SPECIALIZED STUDY IN JAPANESE LANGUAGE AND JAPANESE CULTURE AT UNIVERSITIES

- (1) MEXT, in consultation with the universities concerned, will decide on the university where each recipient shall be enrolled in by taking into consideration his/her Japanese language ability and specialized courses he/she wishes to take. Objections regarding university placement will not be accepted.
- (2) The study at universities will be conducted in Japanese.
- (3) University placement and specialized study of Japanese language and Japanese culture will be conducted as follows.
Specialized Japanese language and Japanese culture study will be divided into the following two courses, depending on the objective of the study: (a) A course conducted mainly to improve students' Japanese language proficiency with supplementary study about Japan and Japanese culture, and (b) A course conducted mainly about Japan and Japanese culture with supplementary study to improve Japanese language proficiency.

The specific course contents vary with each university, but every student will take special lectures on Japan, Japanese culture, and Japanese language and specialized practical study, as well as classes in the departments related to his/her individual major.

- (4) A recipient who has completed a specified course at the university concerned will be given a certificate.
However, the purpose of this scholarship program is not to obtain a diploma. Therefore, a recipient cannot be enrolled in an undergraduate course at a university or a master's or a doctorate course at a graduate school as a Japanese-government-sponsored international student during this program or right after its completion.

7. NOTES

- (1) The recipient is advised to learn, before departing for Japan, the Japanese language and to acquire some information about Japanese weather, climate, customs, university education, and conditions in Japan, as well as about the difference between the Japanese legal system and that of his/her home country .
- (2) The recipient should bring approximately US $2,000 or the equivalent thereof to cover immediate needs after arrival in Japan
- (3) Accommodations:
 1. Residence halls for international students provided by universities.
Some universities have residence halls for international students. The recipients enrolled at such universities may reside, at these residence halls under certain conditions. However, because of the limited number of rooms, some of these facilities may not be available.
 2. Private boarding houses or apartments:
Those who are not able to find accommodation in the aforementioned facilities may live in regular dormitories of the university or in private boarding houses/apartments.
It is very difficult for recipients with dependents to find appropriate housing in Japan. The recipient is requested to arrive in Japan alone first to secure housing before having his/her spouse and/or family come over to Japan.
- (4) It is the recipients' responsibility to verify whether or not the completion of the courses in Japan will be recognized as credits back home. If they need further information regarding the contents of the course, please contact the university that offers the course directly.
- (5) In addition to the regulations stipulated in this guideline, those which are necessary to implement the Japanese Government Scholarship are determined by the Japanese Government.
- (6) More detailed information on this scholarship program is available at the Japanese diplomatic missions.
