Based on a novel by award winning author, Mizuki Tsujimura, a young high school, Ayumi, trains to become a Connector, an intermediary who arranges meetings between the living and the dead. As an apprentice Connector, Ayumi arranges three meetings: one for a scornful middle-aged man who wishes to see his mother who died of cancer, one for his classmate who wants to make up with her best friend who died in a bicycle accident, and another for a businessman who believes that his girlfriend is alive after disappearing years ago.
