

The Gallery of Horyuji Treasures at the Tokyo National Museum
Designed by Yoshio Taniguchi, Photo by Toshiharu Kitajima

PARALLEL NIPPON

Contemporary Japanese Architecture 1996 – 2006

This Japan Foundation exhibition is made in cooperation with the Architectural Institute of Japan. It focuses on Japanese architecture of 1996 – 2006 with the aim of conveying an accurate picture of Japan's architectural profession in those ten years—a period during which it generated new forms of value through fine-tuned designs adapted to the evolving demands of the times. Curated by Miyake Riichi, Professor of Architectural History at Keio University.

November 6 – 20

UBC Robson Square
Plaza Level Sunroom

800 Robson Street, Vancouver

Opening day, Nov 6: 6:00pm - 10:00pm
Monday - Friday: 7:00am - 10:00pm
Saturday - Sunday: 7:30am - 5:30pm

Free Admission

This exhibition is possible through the generous support of

UBC SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE + LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE and Revery Architecture

