

JAPAN FILM SHOW

Rent-a-Cat

(レンタネコ)

Directed by Naoko Ogigami

If you've got a hole in your heart...

...you can always rent a cat!

(c)2012 Rent-A-Cat F.P.

Saturday, November 27
UBC Robson Square (C300 Theatre)

(Musqueam, Squamish & Tsleil-Waututh Traditional Territory)

800 Robson St., Vancouver

Doors at 1:45 p.m. Showtime at 2:30 p.m.

(2012, 110 min., Japanese with English subtitles, Slice-of-life, Rated G)

Trailer: <https://youtu.be/ujAmNgVoKYE>

Sayoko (Mikako Ichikawa), single and in her thirties, lives alone in her old Japanese house - alone, that is, except for the cats who are inexplicably drawn into her orbit.

She passes her time tending to her house, taking care of the family altar of her grandmother, and engaging in eclectic entrepreneurial projects, including renting out cats to lonely people – each a unique individual...

FREE ADMISSION!

Come early. Limited seating on a first-come basis.

*Proof of vaccination and mask required for entry.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Department of Asian Studies
Faculty of Arts

